

Fast Track Hands On Day

Work directly with Lauren, an award-winning content creator & social media consultant with a specialism in short form content.

The opportunity to kickstart your content creation & editing journey with an expert!

Aimed at individuals & businesses looking to level up their content by getting stuck into a day-long or half day workshop.

Throughout the Day:

From basic equipment to upgrades, we'll work out the best set up in the space/timeframe/budget you have, to create high quality content.

I'll share my tricks & techniques to efficiently make your content more flawless, from the initial scripting through to setup, filming & the editing process.

Learn various styles and approaches to social media content that engages, performs and targets the audience you want to attract.

You'll leave with a bulk set of fully filmed content, all ready to edit!

(Editing services also available on request)

This session can be booked as a one-off or monthly to film batches of social media content for your social media.

The Investment:

Half Day (3 hours approx): From £450

Full Day (6 hours approx): From £680

Location & Logistics: To be discussed on a video call prior to booking.

Video Editing: Bespoke fee available on request.
